

ABORIGINAL EMBASSY

The AEU – ACT Branch acknowledges the ongoing importance of the presence of the Aboriginal Embassy on the lawns of Old Parliament House as a reminder to the Australian people and international visitors of:

- the injustice experienced by our Indigenous peoples;
- the proud culture of our Indigenous peoples; and
- the long history of struggle by our Indigenous peoples to achieve justice.

AEU – ACT Branch members are encouraged to support the Aboriginal Embassy as and when appropriate.