AEU COMMUNITY CAMPAIGN – TRAINING (cont'd)

Workload Forum – for all SCHOOL LEADERS NEW!

Thursday 13 May, 9am - 4pm, MR 10, CTL

Would you like to see the workload of school leaders reduced?

The new enterprise agreement has a Joint Working Party that must look at this issue. Come along to this session and provide valuable input so that the AEU can push for the kind of change that you want to see happen. Morning tea, Lunch and Afternoon Tea provided.

Workload Forum – for all SCHOOL TEACHERS NEW!

Thursday 20 May, 9am - 4pm, Multipurpose Room, CTL

Would you like to see the workload of school teachers reduced?

The new enterprise agreement has a Joint Working Party that must look at this issue. Come along to this session and provided valuable input so that the AEU can push for the kind of change that you want to see happen. Morning tea, Lunch and Afternoon Tea provided.

OH & S Forum: Workload and Work Practices are OH & S Issues

Tuesday 1 June, 8.30am registration, 9am – 12pm, MR 5-6, CTL

For OHS Reps & Deputy Reps and all interested AEU members. Enhance your understanding of the Work Safety Act 2008 and Work Safety Regulations 2009. Understand how OH & S issues fit the context of the AEU's Community Campaign. Find out what processes should be applied to ensure optimum health and safety at your workplace; who is responsible for safe work practices; where the buck stops and who pays the penalties. Morning Tea provided.

Dealing with Violence in the Workplace

Wednesday 11 August, 4 – 6pm, MR 10, CTL

For all AEU members, particularly OH & S Reps and Deputy Reps. How can OH & S legislation ensure safety at work. Does OHS law over-ride the Privacy Act and the Discrimination Act? What policies, procedures and laws can be applied to help create a safe workplace and a safe learning environment? This is a repeat of a course run in 2009, but this year will include a discussion of the AEU's Community Campaign.

Refreshments provided at all sessions
